

Sea to Sky Adventure

Vancouver to Squamish

In Vancouver, your epic adventure, where the sea meets the sky, commences. Make your way to the northern tip of Howe Sound Island, where you'll arrive at Squamish Town.

You will be welcomed by the Chief of Stawamus, a giant granite monolith mountain known to locals as The Chief. In Squamish, it's a classic walk, with views of Howe Sound and the town below. The Sea to Sky Gondola is a perfect way to catch the local scenery without breaking a sweat if hiking isn't your thing.

Just your level of thrill-seeking limits your chance for fun and getting outside. For hiking, biking, adventure and all-things mountaineering, The Sea to Sky is popular.

Driving Distance – 64 KM

Squamish to Whistler

You'll pass through Garibaldi Provincial Park, leaving Squamish. Consider visiting and checking out the different trailheads in this park that take you on hikes to stunning pristine lakes and mountain views, with Whistler less than an hour's drive away.

For recreational travelers and thrill seekers, Whistler is the ultimate destination. Go on a mountain trip or pamper yourself in one of the many luxury spas. Cruise the pedestrian-only village. Insider secret – the breakfast at Riverside Resort Park is delicious!

Whistler is a world-class downhill mountain biking destination in summer and home to Whistler Blackcomb, one of the largest ski resorts in North America. On a visitor pass on the popular Peak-2-Peak Gondola that connects Whistler and Blackcomb Mountains, you can still take in the mountain views if adventure is not your thing.

Driving Distance – 59 KM

Whistler to Pemberton

Pemberton is only a 25-minute drive away, inside the Coast Mountains and home to world-class athletes, family farms and breathtaking views, though it may be difficult to leave the beautiful village of Whistler.

Consider taking a day trip to Joffre Lakes Provincial Park for those wanting to discover a little more. A local favorite, these glacier-fed lakes are accessible through an intermediate climb. Just a 30-minute drive outside Pemberton is this magical oasis.

There are numerous campground options in and around Pemberton, including provincial parks and private venues. It's strongly recommended that before going on your adventure, you scope these out and book.

Driving Distance – 33 KM

Pemberton to Vancouver

Embarking on your return to Vancouver, from a new viewpoint, take the Sea to Sky Highway. Make sure you find the impressive Black Tusk peak, one of the most prominent mountains in the Coast Mountains' Garibaldi Ranges. On the left-hand side, you'll see it just south of Whistler.

Before arriving back in Vancouver, pack a picnic and consider stopping at Brandywine Falls Provincial Park, Shannon Falls or exploring Porteau Cove's pebble beach.
