

SELF DRIVE HOLIDAYS

SPLENDID NATURE OF QUEBEC

Product Code: DM-VJSNOQ

DAY 1 – Arrival in Montreal.

Arrive in Montreal. On arrival at Montreal Trudeau International Airport (YUL) pick up your bags and proceed to the Car Rental office at YUL Airport. You will present your confirmation voucher along with your valid Driver's License and credit card to rent your pre-booked car.

Proceed to your hotel in downtown Montreal. The Roadbook you got will have all the data required for your vacation/trip/venture. The rest of the day is at relaxation to explore this exceptional and dynamic French-Canadian city.

Overnight in Montreal.

DAY 2 – Tour Transfer from Montreal to Quebec City (259 KM).

Become more acquainted with this French-talking city on a voyage. Joined by a guide, find the numerous features of Montreal from the solace of a voyage pontoon on the St. Lawrence River. You will explore 25 km of history and attractions along the St. Lawrence River: Old Port, Ste-Helen's Island, the pristine scene of the Boucherville Islands and considerably more.

Your self-drive package includes admission to:

Montreal Guided Cruise - Set sail for fun with a guided cruise near Montreal on the scenic St. Lawrence River, enjoying skyline views and learning about city history as you ride.

Overnight in Quebec City.

DAY 3 – Day Free to Explore on own

Enjoy entire day exploring North America's just walled city. Not to be missed are the Plains of Abraham, the Tour Inclusions:

- ✓ 14 Nights' Accommodations at 3 Star hotel.
- ✓ Rental of Mid-Sized car Toyota Corolla or similar with Unlimited Mileage. Driver must be 21 years or older.
- ✓ One-way Car rental drop-off charges.
- ✓ Admission to 1.5 Hour Montreal Guided Cruise.
- ✓ Taxes & GST.

Citadel, the Upper and Lower towns, the Notre Dame Basilica, and the National Assembly and Parliament Buildings. At night, walk around the city's person on foot neighborly roads and relish the European feel that gives Quebec City such extraordinary qualification.

Overnight in Quebec City.

DAY 4 – Tour Transfer from Quebec City to Rivière-Du-Loup (210 KM).

Today's drive takes you along the St. Lawrence River to Riviere-du-Loup, a significant authoritative and administration focus set on a porch over the waterfront plain with an engaging and unmistakably Québécois air. The flourishing of the mid nineteenth century and the mid twentieth century is reflected in its mind-blowing homes and public structures, including city lobby and St. Patrick's Church and Presbytery. From the Park of the Luminous Cross, you will appreciate a wide arriving at perspective on the town's middle, the St. Lawrence also, the five islands called Les Pelerins, home to a huge number of seabirds and shorebirds.

Overnight in Riviere Du Loup.

Day 5 – Tour Transfer from Rivière-Du-Loup to Baie Des Chaleurs (298 KM).

Reveal the landscape and oceanic legend of the Gaspé Peninsula as your route today takes you to Baie des Chaleurs which lies at the bay of the Gulf of St. Lawrence between northern New Brunswick and eastern Quebec. Discovered and named by Jacques Cartier in 1534, Baie Des Chaleurs is a popular fishing ground for cod, herring, mackerel, and salmon, with numerous Acadian fishing towns on its shores. Overnight in Baie des Chaleurs.

Overnight in Baie Des Chaleurs.

Day 6 – Tour Transfer from Baie Des Chaleurs to Percé (250 KM).

As you travel along the coast you will pass, Port-Daniel, a network of Scottish, Acadian and Irish drop. Take the Capitaine Fournier street which gives a decent perspective on a railroad burrow that crosses Cap de l'Enfer - Cape of Hell. The passage estimates 190 m long and is the just one of its sorts in Quebec. From the 'Côte de Surprise' (Surprise Coast) parkway by the little fishing port of L'Anse-à-Beaufils you will have an eminent full visible of Percé Bay and Percé Rock.

Overnight in Percé.

Day 7 – Percé.

When the biggest fishing port in the Gaspé Peninsula, Percé is currently the pearl of the whole Gaspé district as a hotel and vacationer town and eminent for the unprecedented excellence of its environmental factors. Its noticeable topographical component is an extraordinary stone punctured with a gap, from which the network inferred its

Tour Exclusions:

- × Airfare.
- × Meals.
- × Canada Park Fees - approx. $10 per person per day.
- × Travel Insurance - recommended. We require Travel Agent to secure a signed Waiver in the event client declines your offer to sell Travel Insurance. DMCi will require Travel Agent to provide us the signed waiver when required as a part of the Terms & Conditions of Contract.
- × DMCi sells Manulife Travel Insurance. Please check with us for rates.
- × Collision Damage Waiver & Theft Protection for the rented Car and Roadside Assistance not included in package cost. Same is available at an additional cost.
- × Young Driver Surcharge - Drivers aged 21 to 24 are required to pay CA $30.00 plus taxes, per day at the time of rental pick up.
- × Gas for the vehicle.
- × GPS, Child Seats, Racks, etc.
- × Parking & Tolls.

name. The town has a fabulous choice of eateries and bistros, probably the best in the locale. There is a late spring theater and a footpath that extends along the south seashore. At the wharf you can watch the anglers cleaning their every day get.

Overnight in Percé.

Day 8 – Tour Transfer from Percé to Parc De La Gaspésie (231 KM)

As you pass the eastern most tip of the landmass, set aside some effort to visit Forillon National Park. Apart from its transcending vertical precipices, the region's most unmistakable milestone is the beacon at Pointe-au-Pere National Historic Site, which transcends the St. Lawrence. See the numerous wildflower brambles which loan the close by network of Cap-des-Rosiers its name and take a photograph stop at Gros Morne with its glorious precipices and beautiful narrows zone. Proceed to the core of the Gaspé Peninsula where a wondrous rocky display anticipates you in the Parc de la Gaspésie.

Overnight in Parc De La Gaspésie.

Day 9 – Parc De La Gaspésie

With pinnacles of more than 1,000 m, the recreation center is the main spot in Quebec where caribou, moose and white-followed deer coincide. Appreciate 140 km of climbing trails with broad perspectives or take a guided nature visit (excluded). Notwithstanding climbing, the recreation center likewise offers mountain biking, kayaking, fishing, and picnicking. An Interpretation Center houses a perpetual display and trinket shop. General media showcases and extraordinary exercises additionally give occasions to become familiar with the recreation center's verdure and its geographical history.

Overnight in Parc De La Gaspésie.

Day 10 – Tour Transfer from Parc De La Gaspésie to Tadoussac (320 KM)

Today you will leave the Gaspé Region and drive to Tadoussac, a decision objective for those inspired by marine untamed life, especially whales. A portion of the modest communities enroute include neighborhood workmanship exhibitions showing the absolute best fine art from eastern Quebec, a territory known for its great works of wood cutting. You have a few options of ship intersections: Matane to Baie Comeau/Godbout; Les Escoumins to Trois Pistoles; or Saint Simeon to Riviere Du Loup. Look out for whales and other natural life as you cross the strong St. Lawrence.

Overnight in Tadoussac.

Day 11 – Tour Transfer from Tadoussac to Saguenay (126 KM)

Today, take a short yet grand crash into Saguenay. A superb perspective on the waters underneath the Saguenay Fjord can be found at the town of L'Anse-de-Roche. A stop at L'Anse-Saint-Jean, at times called Quebec's 'Little Switzerland' due to the precarious mountains flanking the town, offers a gander at all around safeguarded customary neighborhood fieldstone and log design. A secured connect that was implicit 1929 and fabulous perspectives on the Saguenay River can likewise be found.

Overnight in Saguenay.

Day 12 – Tour Transfer from Saguenay to Lac St. Jean (126 KM)

Explore Saguenay Provincial Park which jelly pieces of land along the north and south shores of the Saguenay Fjord. The 105 km long fjord is up 250 m profound, bringing about dull golden to dark shaded water. Cold salt water from the St. Lawrence pushes under hotter new water from the Saguenay, bringing about incredibly various marine life. Visit the recreation center's interpretative focus and find out about the arrangement of the fjord and its physical, hydrographic and oceanographic attributes.

Overnight in Lac St. Jean.

Day 13 – Tour Transfer from Lac St. Jean to Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts (273 KM)

You will have more opportunity to appreciate this noteworthy region of the Saguenay Region. The locale around the lake is known for its mining and blundering and nature and amusement aficionados will appreciate sailing, climbing, climbing, looking for landlocked salmon, and horseback riding around this particularly round lake! End the day with a drive through Quebec's wild nature and thick territory as you advance toward Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts.

Overnight in Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts.

Day 14 – Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts

If staying at Sacacomie Lodge or Lac à l'Eau Claire, you will approach a wide assortment of activities during your stay like timberland strolls and mountain biking on all around checked path, admittance to the sea shore, drifting, paddling, windsurfing and cruising on the quiet lake. Likewise, accessible, at an extra charge, are waterway kayaking, seaplane flights, ATV-visits, fishing, waterskiing, plunging and golf.

Overnight in Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts.

Day 15 – Drive back from Saint-Alexis-Des-Monts to Montreal (139 KM).

Return to Montreal Trudeau International Airport to check in for your return flight.

End of Tour.

For More Information on this Tour Package, Operating Dates & Tariffs, please visit:

Self Drive – Splendid Nature of Quebec

or contact our Canada Destination Specialist @

Email: sales@dmci.ca

Phone: +1 (416) 425 8001 extn 1

www.dmci.ca

