Algonquin Park 3-Day Winter Lodge Adventure offers wonderful winter activities such as snowshoeing and backcountry skiing. The services of two wilderness guides are available throughout the three days. This is an ideal trip for those who have never experienced the Canadian winter before. The Log Cabin, which is the base camp for the Algonquin Park 3-Day Winter Lodge Adventure, is a great place to relax after a day of adventures. It is also a perfect place to enjoy the beautiful days of Canadian winter. You can explore the vastness of Algonquin Park and its stunning beauty during your stay at the Log Cabin.

Day 1 – Arrive at your Winter Log Cabin in the Algonquin provincial Park.

Algonquin Log Cabin is the perfect winter getaway for those who love being outdoors and enjoying all that winter has to offer! arrive at 12:30 pm and check in. Start your winter adventure with a tasty lunch. Post lunch go snowshoeing to one of the forest lookouts close to the cabin. Look for wildlife tracks and learn about Algonquin in winter.

Return for appetizers and dinner in front of the stone fireplace. Later try your hand at torch-lit broomball or skating on the lake. Then return to your winter cabin for some well-deserved rest.

Day 2 – Day filled with fun & adventure at Algonquin provincial Park.

Come and enjoy a unique Canadian experience by joining us for a back-country ski trip in the stunning Snowy Mountains. You'll start the day with a hearty Canadian breakfast, before heading out to learn or refresh your back-country ski skills. Then it's off across Surprise Lake and the island circuit, taking in the silence of the snow-laden forest as you stride and glide through the hemlock trails.

After working up an appetite, you'll return for a lunch of steaming hot soup, warm beer bread and salad. The afternoon has options: you can either ski or snowshoe the highlands of Kettle Lake/Cardiac Hill; or if you're feeling more like relaxing, grab a book and curl up in front of the fire.

Before dinner, enjoy some time in the sauna followed by cocktails (BYOB). Then it's time for another delicious home-cooked feast to finish off the day. So come and enjoy all that winter has to offer in beautiful Canada!

Day 3 – Morning, the adventure continues. Afternoon, check-out.

Start your day with a bountiful Canadian breakfast, served up hot and fresh just for you. Afterward, there's no time to waste-it's time to explore the ridge trail once again. This time, take in the stunning views of Moose Bay that you missed earlier. Make sure to return your bags to the winter cabin before lunch-you won't want to miss out on the deliciousness that's in store. After lunch, it'll be time to sauna one last time before you have to check out at 3 PM. Take this opportunity to fully unwind and relax in nature's embrace. You won't regret it.

FAQ

- Should I purchase Travel Insurance? Yes. We advise you purchase travel insurance to cover soft adventure winter activities such as snow shoeing, skiing, etc.
- Getting to the Wilderness Lodge – You will have to make your own way to the Lodge and back.
- How do you get to the log cabin - You can drive right to the Log Cabin and the roads are plowed and are considered "snow roads". Snow roads mean they are plowed into packed down snow which you are able to drive on! Snow tires are recommended.
- Where is the Lodge located – The Lodge is located on Surprise Lake, 8 km from Algonquin Access Point #1 and 30 minutes from any major roads.
- About the Lodge - The Algonquin Log Cabin is the ultimate wilderness retreat. Fully off-grid, the Algonquin Log Cabin does not have electricity, increasing its cozy and unique character.
- About Accommodation - Accommodation is double occupancy with shared indoor washrooms, as well as a sauna and shower cabin. Group size is limited to 12 guests and our two wilderness guides prepare delicious meals allowing you to put up your feet after an invigorating day on the trail.
- BYOB – Clients can bring their own liquor (and enjoy responsibly!). Bring whatever you wish. Best advice is to bring a bag of ice with you as well. Remember: we are off grid – that means no fridge! We can provide you with a cooler to use for your stay.
- Nearest locations to buy alcohol:
  - Broken Patio. Located at Algonquin Park Access Point #1.
  - Magnetewan Distillery. Locally made craft spirits. Located in Sundridge
  - Highlander Brewery. Locally made craft beers. Located in South River. Products sold in most local LCBOs and Beer Stores.
  - LCBO and Beer Store. South River.
  - General Store. Trout Creek. Small selection.
- What is Off Grid Experience? - It means that our cabin is not hooked up to grid electricity. We operate without the need for electricity aside from filling our water cisterns from our well, for which we use a generator.
- Cell Phone & WiFi - No. There is no electricity and no Wifi. There is a cell phone repeater tower within a 5-minute drive where you can get service.
- Hydro/Electricity – does the cabob have hydro? No. There s not hydro/electricity at the Log Cabin. The whole idea is to provide you a "Rustic Experience".

- Plumbing in the Log Cabin - There are two indoor bathrooms for the guests to use in the Log Cabin with flushing toilets. All of the water in the building comes from our well and is filtered for drinking before reaching the faucet. There is a shower in the shower/sauna house which is fitted with an electric pump on solar power to offer solid water pressure.
- Tour Guides - guides are skilled outdoor professionals who ensure your trip is an adventure of a lifetime. On top of being well versed in the natural and cultural history of Algonquin Park, our guides are warm, personable, and service-oriented. Most are graduates of post-secondary programs related to outdoor adventure and all possess industry certification in wilderness first aid.
- What should you bring? - You only need to bring your personal items: clothing, toiletries, and cameras. Bathroom towel is also suggested. A complete list of what to bring will be emailed to you after booking.
- Who else will be there in the cabin and on the trip - There are as many as 12 guests on each trip and three staff members. Our guest's range in ages and nationalities. We do our best to sort our guests into like-demographics (i.e.: families together; adults together). It's not unusual for guests to be trading emails at the end of their trips – it's easy to make friends when you're having so much fun!
- What kind of experience is required for this trip - You do not require any prior experience. We host a range of guests from first timers to grizzled outdoors people every week. Our pace is relaxed, and the objective is to have fun, slow down, and leave plenty of time to explore the beauty of the Algonquin area.
- Fitness Level - You should be able to be active for up to four hours (walking pace) at a time. While travelling in the backcountry, we make frequent stops for snacks, hydration, toilet, and to admire the gorgeous views!
- What kind of meals are provided - We provide fresh and mostly whole-foods meals that are prepared with care and skill. Whether you are in the backcountry or in our Algonquin Log Cabin, you will be served appetizers, main courses, and desserts. Our guests are consistently impressed with our elevated cuisine. Please explain in detail any special dietary needs or allergies you might have during your booking. Kid-friendly foods are added to Family Trips.
- Dietary Requirements - We are happy to accommodate dietary requirements. For more specialty diets such as dairy free, vegan or gluten there is an additional charge. Please be sure to describe your requirement in detail when making your booking. For severe allergies, it is recommended that you bring 2 EpiPens with you.
- Will I have to sign a Liability Waiver? Yes. Some of the activities included in the package require you to sign a Liability Waiver.
- Wild Animals – Is it safe to approach wild animals? Is it safe to touch them if they behave friendly? ABSOLUTELY NO. Neither should you get out of your vehicle to photograph them even if they seem to be calm and even friendly.
- What is your policy should our flight be cancelled or delayed and therefore we are unable to join the tour? – We are not responsible for flight delays, cancellations, etc. Every
