VICTORIA

Product Code: DM-LUXYYJFA-L

DAY 1 – Arrive in Victoria.

This afternoon arrive at Victoria International Airport (YYJ). Our representative will meet you at the arrivals and will transfer you to the stately Fairmont Empress. Designed by Francis Rattenbury and built in classic architecture style, the hotel opened doors in 1908. Featuring 464 tastefully furnished rooms, the hotel has hosted the rich and famous including Shirley Temple, Rita Hayworth, Jack Benny, Roger Moore, and Katharine Hepburn. King George VI and Queen Elizabeth attended a luncheon at the Empress during their 1939 royal tour of Canada.

Spend your evening exploring Victoria's downtown and harbor.

Overnight in Victoria, BC.

DAY 2 – Private 4-hour tour of Victoria including admission for a self-guided tour of Butchart Gardens.

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel and then proceed to explore Victoria.

Embark on a private tour of Victoria with your own private vehicle and driver cum guide. Your tour starts with a visit to Fisherman's Wharf before winding through the streets of downtown Victoria. Your tour will take you through Victoria's famous China Town. From there, the tour will proceed to Beacon Hill Park, passing the impressive Victorian style BC Parliament Building.

Tour Inclusions:

- ✓ 3 Nights' Accommodations at the Fairmont Empress Hotel.
- ✓ Daily Plated Full American Breakfast
- ✓ Private 4 – Hour tour of Victoria
- ✓ Admissions to self-guided tour of Butchart Gardens
- ✓ Meet & Greet and private transfer from YYJ airport to Fairmont Empress Hotel.
- ✓ Taxes & GST.

Beacon Hill Park is famous for the “The Mile Zero” monument, the marker of the start of the over 8,000 km Trans-Canada Highway that spans the entire length of Canada. The monument is located on a large grassy knoll adjacent to the beautiful Beacon Hill Park.

Mile Zero is also home to a statue of Terry Fox, a Canadian icon. From here, you will pass along scenic roads and through the Vancouver Island countryside to Craigdarroch Castle. The final stop point of your tour will be the Butchart Gardens, where you will have free time (usually one hour depending on how much time is left on your tour) to explore this world-famous garden on your own.

Overnight in Victoria, BC.

DAY 3 – Day free to explore Victoria at leisure.

Spend the day exploring Victoria or go on any one of our tours which we offer.

Your choices include a Whale Watching Cruise or Seaplane Tour of Victoria.

Whale Watching - Our three-hour whale watching tour runs daily from April through October. Watch thirty-foot killer whales launch their twenty-thousand-pound bodies into the air before gliding smoothly into the ocean's depths slapping their tails in the water as they dive. Experience BC's enchanting marine wildlife – orcas, porpoises, sea lions, humpback whales, bald eagles. A certified marine naturalist with knowledge and passion for Vancouver Island's marine wildlife is on board the vessel providing guests with firsthand knowledge of the ocean, the animals and marine wildlife that inhabit the ocean off Vancouver Island. The cruiser is equipped with hydrophones to bring the underwater experience to you. Clients must carry warm jackets on this tour. It gets cold on the water even in summer.

Seaplane Tour of Victoria - One of the most popular seaplane tours, this tour departs from Victoria's Inner Harbor. The 30-minute trip is an ideal starter to seaplane aviation. With a maximum of five passengers, it is an intimate, small-group flight navigated by an expert pilot. The tour includes spectacular vistas of downtown Victoria and the Strait of Juan De Fuca.
