What to expect?

On this private tour of, our experienced chauffeur guide will take you to the destinations in and around Victoria you are most eager to see. Itineraries will be adjusted according to your time and interests to make it a personalized tour you'll love.

Our private tour takes you to the beautiful heritage and scenic places in Victoria. Learn interesting stories from our driver guide, from Totem Poles Park to the oldest China Town in Canada. Explore Victoria's Inner harbour with famous Empress Hotel, venture on a drive along spectacular Juan de Fuca Strait, and visit colourful Fisherman's Wharf. Take time to browse through unique and eclectic shops near in Oak Bay village or Downtown Victoria. We will be driving from one exciting place to another, with suggestions and a chance to walk and photograph, or sit and take in the city at your leisure.

Depending on your interests and availability of time, our tour can also include a visit to the Craigdarroch Castle. Built by coal baron Robert Dunsmuir during the reign of Queen Victoria and now a National Historic Site, Craigdarroch Castle has been meticulously restored, giving visitors a glimpse of privileged life in the 1890s.

Next, we head to Butchart Gardens, the themed botanical gardens that has awed visitors to Victoria for over a century. Established in 1904, Butchart Gardens treat visitors to an enchanting floral show that changes with the seasons. Covering 55 acres (22 hectares), the botanical space is intricately laid out into separate themed gardens with landscaping that impresses and inspires gardeners and nature lovers alike.

End your tour with a classic British Style High Tea with mouth-watering scones, delicious pastries, savory chowder, exquisite tea sandwiches, sumptuous desserts, and a selection of fine teas.
