Private Sightseeing Tour Muir Woods and Sausalito Private Tour

San Francisco, CA, USA

Product Code: DM-PT SFOMUIRSAUL

On this half-day tour, you'll wander through ancient groves of coastal redwoods at the Muir Woods National Monument and take a leisurely walk along the historic flower-lined sidewalks of Sausalito.

If you've never seen an old-growth redwood forest, prepare for a full sensory experience. Just a quick 30 minutes from downtown San Francisco, Muir Woods contains trees between 800 and 1,200 years old. You'll take a full hour and a half to roam through this 'living museum' where you can walk among the towering trees that used to dominate the west coast from Santa Barbara to Washington.

After exploring Muir Woods you'll get a quick narrated tour through the beautiful seaside Mediterranean-style town of Sausalito, after which you'll get a chance to explore the 2 ½ mile waterfront (approx. 45 minutes total) before returning to the city across the Golden Gate Bridge.

Have a full day to fill? You can also choose to skip the ride back in the mini-shuttle and opt for a picturesque ferry ride back to San Francisco!

TAKE THE FERRY BACK TO SAN FRANCISCO!

Explore Sausalito for a longer time and take the ferry across the Bay! For only $13 extra, explore Sausalito at your leisure and take the scenic ride to Fisherman's Wharf or the San Francisco Ferry Building. From there, enjoy some more sightseeing and easily reach your hotel via cable car or public transportation.

The ferry from Sausalito departs various times depending on the season.

Itinerary

7:15 AM and 1:30 PM - Make your way to the pre-arranged pick-up spot at the Hilton San Francisco Union Square (333 O'Farrell St). Make sure to be on the Mason Street side of the hotel to meet your Incredible Adventures guide and vehicle.

Cross the Golden Gate Bridge - From the cozy vantage of the mini-coach, take in panoramic scenes that span the city skyline, Alcatraz Island and the boat-speckled bay. We'll next take the winding coastal mountain path through the Marin Headlands where you'll see the base of Mt. Tamalpais (the highest point in the North Bay region) before we arrive in the cool shaded canyon home to these special coastal redwoods.

See the Trees - Are you ready to feel small next to a redwood? You'll step off the mini couch into a wonderland of greenery, where you'll have an hour to an hour and a half to wander along the wooden boardwalks through the tallest species of tree in the world. These unique trees only thrive in Northern California and Oregon, due to the thick fog that blankets the west coast in the summer months. In 1908, Senator William Kent and his wife donated their land to the state and President Theodore Roosevelt designated it as a federally protected area. Muir Woods is the only surviving stand of old-growth forest in the Bay Area. Wandering amongst these towering giants is sure to reconnect you with a natural world that was almost lost forever.
