FAQ

- What should I Dress: December in NYC can be very cold, so be sure to dress in layers and wear comfortable walking shoes.
- What is the weather like in New York? Temperatures ranged from highs of 66°F (18°C) to lows of 27°F (-2°C), averaging 45°F (7°C) for the month.

Independent Tour - USA

- Why should I book attractions & restaurants in Advance: Holiday attractions and dining reservations can fill up quickly, so it's a good idea to book tickets and make reservations well in advance.
- Best way to get around: NYC's subway and bus system is efficient and will help you navigate the city easily.
- What is the best place to see holiday lights? In the Brooklyn neighbourhood of Dyker Heights, the houses are all the way over the top on the decorating front head to one of the botanic gardens. Brooklyn Botanic Garden's Lantern Festival shines in Staten Island and Queens are some of the places to see the holiday lights
- Which neighbourhoods are the best visit for the festivities? Midtown Manhattan is the epicentre of New York's holiday season, Skip the ice-skating rink at Rockefeller Centre, which is small, expensive and prone to long queues. Instead, head to Bryant Park, where there's skating (reservations required) and a holiday market. The quaint streets of Greenwich Village offer a solid alternative; be sure to stop by Washington Square Park, which has its own huge tree and carolling on Christmas Eve.
- Suggestion on making the most of your visit: Take a Holiday Tour: Consider a guided tour of the city's holiday highlights to get insider tips and enjoy a curated experience of festive sites. Explore Neighbourhoods: Beyond the major attractions, neighbourhoods like the West Village and SoHo also offer charming streets decorated for the season. Enjoy the Festive Atmosphere: Simply walking around and taking in the decorations, lights, and window displays is one of the best ways to experience the city's holiday magic.
- What is the policy in case your client's flight gets cancelled or delayed, or if they are unable to travel and join the tour for other reasons? – DMCi Inc., our service providers, employees, contractors & sub-contractors etc. are responsible only for services booked through us.
