Day 1: Arrival in Whitehorse

Arriving in the heart of Canada's Yukon, participants are greeted warmly by the tour guide in Whitehorse, marking the beginning of a breathtaking journey. From the airport, guests are comfortably transferred to their hotel, where fellow travellers gather for introductions. This welcome moment captures the spirit of adventure, setting the tone for days of scenic exploration and unforgettable experiences ahead.

Overnight in Whitehorse.

Day 2: Whitehorse Wonders & Kluane National Park Hike

Highlights of the Day:

- Discover Whitehorse and its rich history
- Tour the SS Klondike along the riverfront
- Drive west on the Alaska Highway to Kluane's edge
- Choose a guided hike or scenic bush plane tour

Following breakfast, guests explore Whitehorse's rich history, with a visit to the SS Klondike, a beautifully restored riverboat. Traveling along the Alaska Highway, they reach Haines Junction, a charming town on the edge of Kluane National Park. Guests can choose a short hike in the park or an optional bush plane tour, soaring over majestic glaciers and ice fields for an awe-inspiring experience.

Overnight in Haines Junction.

Day 3: Explore Kluane Lake & Cross the ALCAN Border

Highlights of the Day:

- Scenic drive along Kluane Lake's stunning shores
- Stop at Sheep Mountain to spot Dall sheep
- Visit Soldier Summit, a historic Alaska Highway site
- Reach the iconic Alaska-Canada border

Today's journey leads along the stunning shores of Kluane Lake, with a stop at the Sheep Mountain Visitor Center, where sightings of Dall sheep are likely. Continuing, guests visit Soldier Summit to uncover the history of the Alaska Highway. By afternoon, the group arrives at the Alaska-Canada border, completing a day rich in natural beauty and historical significance.
