Day 1: Start in Calgary, Drive Through Scenic Alberta

Driving Distance: 283 KM | 176 Miles

Start your journey in Calgary, where you'll collect your rental car and head toward the spectacular Waterton. The road unfolds with Alberta's vast landscapes, blending prairies and mountains into breathtaking views. Waterton awaits with its serene lakes and dramatic cliffs, marking the start of your awe-inspiring exploration of Canada's majestic national parks. This drive is just the first taste of the beauty that lies ahead.

Overnight in Waterton, AB

Day 2: Cruise Waterton Lake – Pure Canadian Beauty

Driving Distance: 12 KM | 8 Miles

Highlights of the Day:

- Cruise Waterton Lake, with peaks as your backdrop.
- Feel the serenity of untouched Canadian beauty.
- Encounter wildlife along calm, crystal waters.
- Snap photo-worthy moments in this tranquil haven.

Set off on a tranquil cruise across Waterton Lake, surrounded by magnificent mountain views and emerald-green forests. As you sail, experience the beauty of untouched wilderness, with every turn revealing new sights and wildlife. This serene cruise will leave you feeling connected to nature and ready to explore even more of Canada's incredible landscapes.

This 1 hour and 15-minute Non-Landing Canada-USA Border Cruise travels to the international border where passengers will see a cutline running through the forest, up the sides of the mountains indicating the 49th parallel and the Canada/USA

International Border. The cruise stays close to the shoreline which increases the chances of seeing wildlife. Scenic stops are plenty and an entertaining commentary is also provided by local guides. This cruise only goes about halfway down the lake to the international border and the trip is non-landing. No passports are required.
