When is the Montreal Canadian Grand Prix 2025? The 2025 Montreal Grand Prix will be held on June 15, 2025.

Where is the Montreal Grand Prix racetrack located?

The official track address is:

222 Circuit Gilles Villeneuve
Parc Jean-Drapeau
Montreal, Quebec, Canada
H3C 6A1

2074 Steeles Avenue E, Unit 1 & 2, Brampton, ON, Canada, L6T 4Z9

Phone: +1 416 425 8001 | E-mail: sales@dmci.ca

www.dmci.ca

This racetrack sits just south of downtown Montreal, making it easy to immerse yourself in the city's vibrant culture while still attending all the races.

How do I get to the race by subway? The Montreal Metro is a modern, safe, fast, and convenient subway system. The Gilles Villeneuve Circuit is located on the Yellow Line at Jean-Drapeau Metro Station on Île Notre-Dame, just a five-minute walk away. It takes about 15 minutes by Metro from downtown Montreal, making it the preferred mode of transportation for the Grand Prix to avoid heavy car traffic. After exiting the Metro, you can catch the 167 bus directly to the racetrack.

How do I get to the race by car? Arriving by car is not recommended due to heavy traffic and limited parking at the track (reserved primarily for Suite ticket holders). Access to the man-made island of Île Notre-Dame, where Circuit Gilles Villeneuve is located, is also restricted.

- Use public transportation: Whenever possible, leave your car at the hotel and travel to the race circuit via public transit.
- If you must drive: Take the “Parc Jean-Drapeau” exit from the Jacques-Cartier Bridge. Be aware that Crescent Street, Saint-Paul Street, and Peel Street will be closed during race weekend. Allow extra time for your journey, as there will be significant delays on the Jacques-Cartier Bridge. You can consider an Uber or taxi, but heavy traffic is expected all weekend.
- Once you're on Île Notre-Dame: There are three main entry points to the track—the gates at the Concorde Bridge, the Cosmos Bridge, and the Montreal Casino.

How early should I get to the track? Make the most of your race day by arriving early. Ferrari Cup, Porsche Cup, and Touring Car events start in the morning, so plan to be there by 8 A.M. for a full day of high-speed excitement.

Are tickets reserved seating? Once we purchase your grandstand tickets, your seats will be reserved, so you won't need to rush to secure a good spot. However, it's best to buy tickets as soon as possible to get the best seats. If you're choosing General Admission, seating is on a first-come, first-served basis, so aim to arrive early. Also, remember to allow for traffic or typical Metro travel times.

Is there wheelchair access? Grandstand tickets include access to Grandstands 21a and 41a, designed for limited-mobility viewers and conveniently located near the parking area.

Is there food available at the track? Grandstand ticket holders can enjoy sit-down restaurants, while hot dogs and other basic fare are available to everyone. Prices can be quite high, so consider bringing your own food. If you plan to dine in downtown Montreal, make reservations in advance, as walk-in seating may be hard to find.

What Can I Bring into The Races?

- RADIO
Gear up to make sure you don't miss a thing. Tune your radio-to-Radio Grand Prix radio station—99.1FM or 104.5FM—to hear the on-track broadcast.
- MOBILE PHONE APP
For even more play-by-play, download the official F1 app to guarantee you don't miss a moment and will be able to hear the track commentary.
